

PEACE TREATY NOT YET IN EFFECT

Although Four Countries Have Ratified It—United States Still On Outside

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 16—Officials in Washington professed today to have no information as to the reasons for postponing the exchange at Paris of the ratification of the treaty of Versailles by Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany, which would bring the peace into immediate force. There was a suggestion that exchange of the ratification was postponed because the League of Nations would have to assemble within 15 days after the treaty went into effect.

Officials assumed when the treaty is put into force the three powers which have completed ratification would proceed with organization of the League. The United States, however, just now is not among them. Chief among the many clauses effective when the treaty becomes effective is that requiring Germany to issue a hundred billion marks for bonds for the reparation of devastated territories and further German disarmament.

STANLEY TO SPEAK HERE NEXT THURSDAY

George Martin Will Also Appear With the Senator, Who Comes To Answer Morrow

Announcement has been made by Chairman Joe P. Chenaunt that Senator A. O. Stanley and former Senator George Martin will speak in Richmond on the night of Thursday, October 23 in the interest of the state democratic ticket.

Senator Stanley's record as governor is not an issue in the present campaign, but the republicans are making an effort to make it so, and the Senator has come back from Washington to answer the charges that Ed Morrow and other minions of Hertz are making against him. George Martin is well known in Richmond, where he attended school at old Central University. He has many warm friends here, and is a speaker of parts himself.

It is expected that there will be a large crowd in to hear the distinguished democrats. Senator Stanley is one of the most brilliant orators in the country today. He has stood steadfastly by President Wilson and his policies since going to Washington, and has been his royal defender against the attacks of Lodge, Borah, Johnson and others who have sought to embarrass and humiliate Wilson not only before this nation but before other nations of the world, ever since the President returned from the Peace Conference.

Every democrat and every citizen who wants to look at public questions from both sides, and not take a partisan prejudiced view of affairs, should hear Stanley and Martin here next Thursday night, October 23.

CLAIMS PACKERS ARE CORNERING THINGS

NOBLE WOMAN GOES TO HER GREAT REWARD

Remains of Mrs. Mary Goodloe Lackey, Who Died At Lancaster, Brought Here for Burial

Mrs. Mary Goodloe Lackey, wife of the late D. M. Lackey, died at her home in Lancaster, on Wednesday morning, Oct. 15th aged 81 years. Her last illness covered a period of one year, and her death brings to its close an interesting and notable life. She was born in Madison county in 1838 and was the eldest of three children, born to her parents, Col. Archibald Woods Goodloe and his wife, Maria Estill who in their marriage united two of the most distinguished families in the early history of Madison county.

In her early youth her parents removed to a plantation in Arkansas near the Louisiana line, where they enjoyed the luxurious life of the southern planters in the days preceding the Civil war. She received her early education in a Convent in Mobile, Ala., where she acquired a liberal acquaintance with literature, French and music; and the graceful manners taught in those days by the finishing schools for young ladies. These accomplishments, added to a mind endowed with unusual brilliancy, were used by her through her long life in many ways for the pleasure of a wide circle of friends and relatives; and in the service of her Master.

In 1853 she was united in marriage to Delaney Miller Lackey, of Madison county. The wedding was celebrated at the home of Gen. and Mrs. John Miller in Richmond—Mrs. Miller (nee Goodloe) having been the aunt of the bride and Gen. Miller, uncle of the groom.

In 1903, friends and relatives from many points in Kentucky and from other states came to unite with Mr. and Mrs. Lackey in celebrating their golden wedding anniversary at their home in Lancaster. Their children and grandchildren were with them also, and it was a most enjoyable occasion.

Mr. Lackey preceded his wife to the great beyond 9 years. They were both for many years earnest and devout members of the Presbyterian church. Their home was famous among all their acquaintances for its warm and generous hospitality. No call ever came from the sick or the troubled that she did not try to meet it. She was peculiarly gifted in the ability to bring comfort and courage to those in distress. If she could not reach them in other ways, she would do so by means of her gifted pen.

Her own last days were saddened by the death of her son, Mr. Goodloe Lackey, of Kansas City, in whose career she had taken great pride and interest. She was greatly blest in having with her in her declining years her devoted daughter, Miss Jennie Lackey, by whom she is survived and also two granddaughters, Mrs. Herbert Price, of Danville, and Miss Mary Goodloe Lackey of Kansas City.

Her relatives and friends will miss her and will ever cherish the memory of her kindly interest and love for all who were allied to her by ties of relationship or the bonds of friendship.

After funeral services at her residence in Lancaster, the interment took place on the Goodloe lot in the Richmond cemetery on Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. G. W. Goodloe, George Phelps, R. L. Conlee, John Lackey, T. S. Burnam, and Sam Lackey.

Dies In Los Angeles

Col. Bob Walker cried a splendid sale for E. E. Hooker on Hillsdale avenue Wednesday. Mr. Hooker plans to go to Findlay, Ohio, where he has bought a handle factory saw mill. Mr. Hooker has secured a big and prosperous plant in the Buckeye state and his many friends here are wishing him every success in his new home.

FISCAL COURT TELLS FACTS ABOUT NEED FOR BETTER ROADS

Richmond, Ky

Oct. 7, 1919.

TO THE CITIZENS AND TAX PAYERS OF MADISON COUNTY:

The Fiscal Court having by a vote of six to one at its meeting Sept. 2nd, 1919, ordered an election to be held Nov. 4th, 1919 to ascertain the sentiment of the voters of Madison county upon a proposition to levy a special tax of 20 cents on each $100.00 worth of taxable property in the county for improving or constructing Roads and Bridges in the county; feels that a statement of the reasons for calling said election—the present condition of finances of the county and of the maintenance of the Roads and Bridges, the cost in connection therewith, the revenue now available for the purpose, together with the proposed use of the fund which would be created in the event the proposed tax should be carried by a majority vote of the people in November, should be made available to every voter of the county, in order that he may cast his vote intelligently on this issue, which this court feels is of far more importance to the people of this county than the election of officials or other minor matters.

Madison county has 278 miles of earth roads to maintain and more than 200 bridges of span greater than 10 feet to maintain and frequently replaced, over water courses in the county, besides innumerable culverts. Only a comparatively small mileage of our roads are now in first class condition, some of the bridges constructed in the very recent past are modern and suitable for present needs of the traffic and this work should be continued but the improvement of the roads and bridges can not be pushed as the court feels it should be and as the people expect it should be, so long as the revenue is no greater than it now is. The traffic over the roads at this time is at least five times as great as it was 10 years ago. The demand for a better road than was formerly built, is justified and necessary under present traffic conditions, yet in view of all these things which are undisputed and evident to every thinking man in the county—this Court is frequently censured because it is unable to meet every demand made upon it for the construction and improvement of the Roads and Bridges of the county.

We have available as the Fiscal Agents of the taxpayers and people of Madison county, for the upkeep, construction, reconstruction and for all purposes in connection with roads, bridges, culverts, and etc., about $50,000 each year which if used on the pikes alone, would make about $180 per mile, a sum wholly inadequate to even maintain them in reasonably good condition, and if this sum were distributed over the entire mileage of roads it would only place about $87.00 per mile for maintenance, and under this arrangement no consideration is given to bridges or culverts, both of which are very costly when constructed in first class manner.

The rate of taxation for all county purposes (other than schools) over which this court has the control was reduced at the April term to 46 cents on each $100 which is the lowest tax rate paid in Madison county since 1897 and is as low at the present time as the rate in any county in the state in which any effort is made to maintain reasonable public improvements and it is the settled judgment and conviction of the members of the court that sound business policy would be shown in maintaining and extending the improvement of our roads and bridges in order that the citizens of every section may have easy access to every other portion of the county, and this result can only be attained if our people are willing to place sufficient money at the disposal of the Fiscal Court to pay the county's proportion of the cost.

Many counties of the state have already, by voting special taxes, bonds and otherwise prepared to share in the appropriations of the state of Kentucky and the National Government, for the purpose of improving their roads, and this court believes that the people of Madison county should likewise have an opportunity to secure aid from the National Government, which can now be secured by contributing one-half of the cost of the improvement which will be of the highest type of road building and done under the supervision of Engineers of the government.

The construction of new roads has ceased in the county on account of the fact that the cost of labor, materials, and etc., has advanced to such an extent that the appropriation now made by the county to such new improvement is not sufficient to defray more than a very small percent of the cost of new work. Under the present revenues this character of work together with a large percent of reconstruction of old pikes cannot be undertaken and pushed to completion as should be done.

The foregoing are some of the reasons why the court ordered the election, believing and having every confidence that the intelligent citizenship of the county is in favor of good public improvements and always desires the betterment of the county and its people.

If, by their votes the people of Madison county authorize the levy of the additional tax, the court pledges itself to expend each year on the roads and bridges in each magisterial district, in addition to the sum now appropriated the entire sum collected under the special tax in that district, and to continue to give scrupulous care to all expenditures of public funds for every purpose.

This statement is made, not in defense of any act of the court or any member of it, but in order that no misrepresentation of the court's action, purpose or intention may be circulated among the people of the county as was the case in the election held March 29th, 1919; and in order that the voters may intelligently cast their ballots on the subject.

The fiscal court serves the people of the county practically without the payment of salary—are interested in everything that improves the county or adds to the comfort and convenience of its people and would like to grant every proper request for aid from every section of the county for public improvements, but can only do so as funds are available and therefore submits this question to the people themselves for determination.

Madison county is practically free from debt, the public roads are the

PORTER TELLS LEXINGTON HOW TO CLAMP ON LID

At Lexington in an address in Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, J. Sherman Porter, publicity director of the State-wide Prohibition Federation, in speaking on "Which Shall Rule in Lexington, the Law or Bolshevism?" declared that Bolshevism could get no foothold anywhere the law is enforced and asserted that arrests by federal marshals in Louisville showed his statement of two weeks ago that liquor was being sold in Louisville was true. "This lawlessness has been going on right under the noses of the city administration of Louisville" said Mr. Porter. "If Bolshevism ever gets a start in this fair and of ours it will be due solely to the laxity of faithless public officials in enforcing the law."

"Take the names of these men arrested in Louisville, for instance" he continued. "Almost every man a German or working for a German."

"Governor Black has declared for the reduction in the number of members of the Board of Control in charge of the State's charitable and penal institutions from five to three. I want to declare here and now for a reduction in the number of commissioners of Lexington from five to three. And I want to recommend to Commissioner of Public Safety, Thos. C. Bradley, a remedy for lawlessness in Lexington."

"If he will say to the Chief of Police, Jerry Reagan: 'You are the head of the police department of the city. If there are men you do not want, give me their names, and you enforce the law in this city.' I will guarantee that within a week Jerry Reagan will have cleaned up Lexington. But without authority over his force he cannot do it."

An Embarrassing Answer

Inspector—Do you teach observation?

Teacher—Yes.

Inspector—Then I will test the class. Now, children, shut your eyes and sit still. The inspector made a slow whistling noise, and followed with, "Now, children, what did I do?"

For some time there was no answer, but ultimately one little boy piped out: "Kissed teacher."

The War Against Wilson

Republicans are insisting not only on fighting the present campaign on state issues, but on making those issues the issues of four years ago, when the people, after due deliberation, decided that whatever the faults of Owsley Stanley they preferred him to Ed Morrow. It is not possible for them, however, to avoid the consequences of Republican war on the President in the United States Senate. The animus of that fight against President Wilson is stated succinctly but powerfully in the address of Congressman Alvin W. Barkley as chairman of the Democratic State Convention when he said:

"And then when this army had driven the enemy back at Belleau Wood, at Chateau Thierry, at Fismes, at St. Mihiel, in the Argonne Forest and all the other immortal spots where American blood sanctified the soil of France, and that enemy with broken sword and flag of truce sued for peace on terms laid down by the Commander-in-Chief of that victorious army, we see these same Republican sustainers and upholders seeking to discredit the President of the nation and the spokesman of their country in a foreign land, where he had

There's only one way to get rid of a corn, and that is to peel it off as you would a banana skin. There is only one corn remover in all the world that does it that way, and that

There's No Corn "Gets-It" Will Not "Get-It". It is because of this fact that "Gets-It" is today the biggest seller among corn-removers on this planet. It means the end of "corn-killing." For hard corns, soft corns, very old corns, young corns, corns between the toes and calluses, it means a quick, certain finish. "Gets-It" is applied in 2 or 3 seconds. All you need is 2 or 3 drops. As easy to do as signing your name. It does away forever with tape, blisters, bandages, knives, corn-diggers, scissors, files and blood-bringing razors. Ease your corn-pains, be corn-free at last. "Gets-It" is the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfgd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Richmond and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Stockton & Son.

gone amid the grateful acclamations of a burdened world to help restore the peace of nations and gather up again the fragments of civilization. We see them by every contemptible device which demagogues display seeking to hinder, to thwart, to intimidate, to belittle and discredit the President of this great nation in the hope that his efforts to vindicate the cause for which our nation fought might come to naught. And when after months of weighty counsel and profound deliberations among the representatives of those who had won the war, the greatest peace treaty ever penned since man ascended from the depths of savagery and laid before the world for its approval, we see that same group of envious men seeking to emasculate it and tear its vitals to shreds while the word waits over a volcano for the return of peace.

The people of Kentucky want that treaty ratified. They want war made as nearly impossible as may be for the future. For that reason they favor the League of Nations. Mr. Morrow, as quoted by William C. Shinnick, one of the most reliable and dependable newspaper men in the state, seems to be against it. The people will decide whether it is an issue November 4th when they elect Governor Black, who favors the treaty and the League, over Mr. Morrow, who "seems to be" against it.

Much interest is being taken in the meeting of business men which will be held Friday evening at the courthouse for the purpose of discussing the good roads question with State Road Commissioner Joe S. Boggs. Mr. Boggs is in a splendid position to see that old Madison gets all "that is coming to her" in the good roads line from the State Roads Department. He is anxious to co-operate, but the people of Madison must do their part. The fiscal court is hampered in its efforts to put the road system of Madison on a modern basis by lack of funds. It will be this question that the business men will take up at their conference Friday night.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . .

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

Miller-Milward Wedding

The following from the Eustis Lake Region, Florida, will be read with interest here, the former home of the bride, the groom also being well known here, where he frequently visits his aunt, Mrs. G. D. Simmons:

A pretty early fall wedding was solemnized this morning at nine-thirty o'clock in the Presbyterian church, when Miss Elizabeth Miller, of this city, became the bride of Mr. Harry L. Milward, of Lexington, Ky. The interior of the church was radiant with its decorations of gold and green, fall flowers, golden red and the graceful alabaster being used in exquisite arrangement with a profusion of ferns and potted plants. The choir loft and pulpit were masses of green, while a broad arch of ferns and blossoms formed a beautiful setting for the bridal party. Mrs. W. T. Dart presided at the organ and rendered a lovely program of wedding music before the appointed hour. During the ceremony "I love you truly" was played. Mendelssohn's wedding march sounded the approach of the bridal party. Down one aisle came Miss Sara Bassett, the bride's only attendant, beautifully gowned in white gaberdine coat frock, with white hat, gloves and other accessories to match. She wore a corsage of pink roses. Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She was lovely in a stylish suit of navy blue chiffon broadcloth and large black hat, and a corsage of white roses. They were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Joe Bassett, who approached down another aisle.

Beneath the arch of gold and green the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Porter, of the Methodist church, there being no Presbyterian pastor here at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Milward left immediately after the ceremony for Sanford thence by boat to Jacksonville and on to Kentucky, where they will visit in Lexington, Richmond and Millersburg, before going on to their future home in Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. Milward donned a small blue hat and veil for traveling.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ansil D. Miller, formerly of Richmond, Ky., who, since coming to Eustis, has won a strong holding the affection of a host of friends. She is a general favorite and is admired for her lovely disposition and charming personality. She was educated at both public school and college in her former home in Kentucky, and later attended Stetson University, where she took a special course in music.

She was never handsomer than on her bridal morn' and no girl had ever entered into the bonds of matrimony with more universal good wishes and blessings than this beloved daughter of the Southland, who is an embodiment of all those graces of body and mind and character that fit her for any station in life.

Mr. Milward is the only son of Mrs. Lena Frost Milward, of Lexington, Ky. His father, the late Luke Milward, was one of the most widely known men in Kentucky, being at the head of one of the largest piano and music stores in that state. He is a graduate of State University of Lexington, where he took the degree of mechanical engineer. He is popular in college fraternities, being a member of the Alpha Tau Omega, Lamp and Cross, Mystic Thirteen and other honorary orders. He is one of Lexington's finest young men, possessed of all those valuable traits that go to make up noble manhood.

He entered the army service soon after his graduation and had attained the rank of first Lieutenant when the armistice was signed. Mr. Milward holds a lucrative position in the drafting department of the Ford automobile factory in Detroit, Mich.

The marriage is the culmination of a romance begun when they were both in their early teens. As they go out into life together under such blue and promising skies may no sorrows be theirs; but may they ever walk hand in hand the elysian fields of happiness and love as on their bridal day.

A beautiful display of elegant and handsome gifts from far and near were tributes of love of friends and relatives. Among the collection was a chest of solid silver from the groom's immediate family.

Mr. Editor: Allow me space to supplement the notice of your daughter's wedding. You will not like to say in print all that deserves to be written at this time concerning her. I have known Elizabeth from the very day of her birth, in Richmond, Ky. I knew her grandparents and her parents before her birth. I have watched her career with affectionate interest, akin to that of a father. In infancy she gave promise of being an unusually harmonious and lovable creature, and her childhood and later years bore out every promise. She has always possessed a golden disposition, which is, like a good name, more than riches. To her sunny and lovable disposition God gave her a fine voice and health and beauty. Above all, she has always been a model child, obedient and respectful and tender and loving. She has been industrious, doing with all her heart what her hands found to do. She has ever been responsive to calls for service in religious work, in charity, in war work, and has given largely and lavishly of her wonderfully sweet voice to every worthy cause. In school she was the same model, respectful, obedient child. When she

They were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Joe Bassett, who approached down another aisle.

"Like two clouds at morn,
Tinged by the rising sun;
And in the dawn they floated on,
And mingled into one."

May their childhood love, now come to fruition in wedlock, prove in all ways to have been divinely guided that theirs may be a singularly happy wedded life. I can think only with pain and sorrow of any other kind for our dear Elizabeth.

CLARENCE E. WOODS.

Park-McKinney

Many friends and loved ones at home were surprised greatly to learn of the wedding at Jeffersonville, Ind., Wednesday evening of Miss Geneva Park and Mr. Baum McKinney. Taking only a few into their confidence, they motored through to the Hoosier Gretna Green and were united in matrimony's holy bonds shortly after their arrival. Their elopement was very romantic, as both are very young, the bride being only 16, and the groom but 19. Notwithstanding his age, the groom is recognized as one of the liveliest young business men in this part of the state. He is a partner in the Madison Laundry, steady, energetic and a hustler, and a splendid young man in every way. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. McKinney, of Waco.

The charming young bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Park, on the Jack's Creek pike. She is attractive and lovable in every way. She been attending Eastern Kentucky State Normal. When she left home Wednesday morning, she laughingly told her father to come to town after the pony as she was going to get married. He thought her joking, and paid little attention to her but she was soon on her way to Jeffersonville with Mr. McKinney, Mr. O. C. Evans, and her cousin, Miss Gertrude Simpson, and now the happy young couple are on their honeymoon, en route to Niagara Falls, and other points in the east. On their return they will make their home here. A host of friends and loved ones will extend congratulations and sincerest good wishes.

ARTIST CONCERT SERIES

Opens Oct. 27th At Lexington With Isadora Duncan Dancers And George Copeland, Pianist

The Artist Concert Series which begins Oct. 27th with the coming of the Isadora Duncan Dancers, and George Copeland, Pianist, promises to be the most brilliant artist series ever presented in Central Kentucky. It offers all that could be desired in variety and quality of entertainment.

Decidedly the most unique entertainment of the series is the novel "illustrated concert recital" of the six charming young women known as the Isadora Duncan Dancers, who will open the series at the Lexington Opera House, Monday Oct. 27 with George Copeland, Pianist. Together these entertainers present the most brilliant prospects for the matinee and night performances of the fall, presenting entirely different programs at the two entertainments.

Helen Stanley, one of the most successful of the young prima donnas of the day, will make her first appearance in Central Kentucky, Wednesday December 3, at the second concert of the series, for one concert only. Although she has met with marked favor in opera, Madam Stanley prefers concert work, and the great soprano will give Kentucky the opportunity of hearing her in this concert program.

Madam Stanley will be assisted by Elmer Zoller, a pianist of distinction, who will play a group of piano numbers on the program as well as accompany Madam Stanley.

Maurice Dambois, one of the world's greatest cellists will come to Lexington Feb. 10, for one concert only, but even that one concert will stand out as a feature of the artist series arranged for 1919-1920. Dambois places stress on the understanding which he is pleased to call the "soul" of music. His success has been wonderful from every standpoint.

Harold Bauer, who comes to Lexington for joint concert with Dambois, is one of the few pianists to whom the term "great" may be applied. He is one of America's favorites and needs no introduction to any audience. The fourth concert of the series will be given by the Cincinnati Symphony, Eugene Ysaye, Director, Emil Herman, soloist, April 13th.

Already their coming is being anticipated with great pleasure, and both matinee and night performances will be well attended.

Season tickets for the four night concerts, at much smaller prices than for the four separate seats, are now on sale, as well as tickets for the separate concerts, and can be secured by writing to the management, The Lexington College of Music, Anna Chandler Goff, Director.

Season tickets will be sold at Ben Ali Theatre ticket office, Oct. 22-23, but none sold after the latter date. Single seat sale at same office Oct. 25-26-27.

—FOR SALE— High Grade Tobacco Farms

Limestone Farms that grow the highest quality of tobacco on Stone Piles, within 10 miles of Louisville at prices ranging from $20.00 to $50.00 per acre. This land grows from 1500 to 2500 pounds of Light Burley tobacco to the acre. Our crops invariably bring the highest prices on the Louisville market. During the past year we have sold practically a million dollars worth of farm property to Kentuckians and no sale was ever made by us where the purchaser sold at a loss or even for the price paid.

Come to Jeffersonville and let us show you what we have. You will be under no obligations.

Mr. James Million and family visited his brother, Mr. Sam Million of Newby Friday night.

Quite a number of young people from this place attended the pie supper at Newby Friday night.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season was the surprise birthday dinner given Mr. A. H. Wells Sunday, Oct. 12th it being his 57th birthday. There were 63 present. A bountiful dinner was served and an enjoyable day was spent. He was at church when the guests arrived. When he reached home he said to his wife "What will we give all these people to eat?" The guests left wishing him many more happy birthdays.

RUTHTON

The meeting closed at Corinth church Sunday night, with two additions. Those who were fortunate enough to hear Rev. Early were delighted with his preaching and we feel sure he has done the community much good.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther West were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Moberly Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Burton Sanders and little nephew, Harlan Snyder, of Garrard, attended church at this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Agee entertained very delightfully at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Moberly and son, Mr. and Mrs. Mayor Hamm and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Prewitt and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledford Faulkner had as their guests Saturday night and Sunday, Rev. Early, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Agee and little son, Harold.

DR. CHANDLER TO LEAD Y. M. C. A. DRIVE HERE

The Y. M. C. A. of Kentucky, will make its campaign for its annual budget of this year from Oct. 20th to Oct. 30, in every county of the State. This budget includes the running expenses of the organization and an amount of the home and foreign work of the International committee and training schools for secretaries.

Each county has been assigned a quota, based upon the amounts given in the war work drive, Liberty loans, etc. The amount asked for in each county is about 1/4 of the amount in the war work campaign.

Rev. M. T. Chandler has agreed to act as Chairman of the drive in this county. Others will be needed to help him.

Mr. K. P. Zerfoss, is the district secretary of Scott, Clark, Boyle, Madison and Garrard. He has worked in the Colleges and in the High schools, and the committees promoting bible classes, play days of recreation, and conferences.

The State Y. M. C. A. is asking for money to improve Camp Daniel Boone. To this Camp many boys from this county have gone in the past. Last summer there were about 400 there. Of this number 243 made decisions for better life; 32 were taught to swim and 89 awarded a bronze triangle, for passing certain physical, moral and mental tests.

There were over 500 boys and who took examinations, after having completed 8 weeks of study in bible classes, organized in the high schools by the Y. M. C. A. In Mr. Zerfoss's District there were 5 bible classes organized. This year there should be ten. The State Y. M. C. A., working with the State Board of Health, will carry out the Government program of Six-Hygiene, thru its secretaries.

Mr. Zerfoss gave a demonstration of Army Mass-play in the four counties. About 750 took part in this play at Georgetown, the whole school marched to the gymnasium and played or watched those who had room to play. The Y. M. C. A. can touch every county Kentucky in eleven days.

The amount asked for by the Y. M. C. A. will, with the exception of an amount for the International committee and training schools, be spent in the State. The staff of the State Y. M. C. A. has now 21 men on it. Two of these are colored work secretaries. They promote work among the colored people and raise their own budget among their race. Mr. P. C. Dix has been the State Secretary for 17 years, and is considered the best in America. sidered the best in Americafwyp Mr. C. A. Tevebaugh, his assistant is also well known. Mr. Karl Zerfoss is the State Student Secretary in addition to the district duties, and promotes work with over 2500 college men in the state.

The State Y. M. C. A. is managed by a regular member: Dr. W. A. Ganfield, Jno. VanWinkle, Prof. B. T. Spencer, H. E. Taylor, and F. O. Clark, L. B. Anderson of Louisville, is President and Judge Edward Jouett is Vice President.

Camp Daniel Boone, is the big boys training and recreation camp, owned and operated by the State Y. M. C. A. of Kentucky. This camp is situated on the Kentucky river, two miles below Valley View, Jessamine county, across the river from Madison.

Every year this camp is open from June to September, Mr. Donaldson is in charge, he was in boys work for 6 years and at Camp Taylor for several months in the army. All of the 400 boys who were at camp this summer know and like Mr. "Donney". Parents feel safe when their boy is under his care.

The boys who go there are under other leaders, ministers, teachers and business men who give this time at A. included $15000 for the improvement of this camp, which with the camp.

The present budget of the Y. M. C. A. addition, make it an asset, worth while, to central Kentucky, and a great retreat for the boyhood of the Blue Grass.

SUBDIVIDED TO SUIT THE BUYERS The very BEST LAND in MERCER COUNTY.

AT AUCTION

Tuesday, Oct. 21, 10 O'clock

Long frontage on Danville and Shakertown pike, and also Chatham pike, 1 1-2 miles, Shakertown, 3 1-2 miles, Burgin, 6 miles, Harrodsburg. Right at Shawnee Run Baptist church. "Taint no use hollerin' what you haint got." Well, we are "hollerin'", "we've got it." But we are going to sell it to you. Read this advertisement. Look at the farm. You will find our statements true.

The BEST FARM and the BEST improved farm offered for sale in Mercer county or adjoining counties this year. IMPROVEMENTS: A $10,000 new 2 story brick bungalow, 8 rooms, 2 halls, 2 concrete porches, bath room and toilet, 4 room concrete basement, furnace, water works, electric lights, beautiful fixtures, hardwood floors french doors and windows. Built in presses, china closets, buffet, book case and refrigerator. Modern and complete in every detail. Beautiful lawn to pike with large shade trees. Three large tobacco barns (22 acres), 4 tenant houses, 1 new, good enough for ordinary residence silo, stock barns, garage and outbuildings, orchard, everlasting stock water, concrete troughs, well fenced, convenient fields and lots. Land level and gently rolling and very fertile, in high state of cultivation, limestone with red clay subsoil, 175 acres in grass, 30 acres sown to wheat, 45 acres sown to rye, 85 acres for corn and tobacco next year. No waste land. The owner has taken care of this farm. He believes in "hogging down" corn, feeds several car loads of hogs each year and every farmer knows what this means in added fertility.

What gives value to land? Location-improvement, good neighborhood proximity to churches, schools and markets, fertility of soil, fencing, water and convenient fields, level and easily cultivated. This farm has them all. The question will be asked, what is this farm worth? What will it bring? In my opinion it is worth $350 the acre or more. This is something in new advertisements. The statement is made in order to give you an idea of the valuable farm I am offering. But remember the bidders "fix the price" and remember Swinebroad "ALWAYS SELLS" without prizing or boosting of by-bids. Always a clean sale and a square deal. Liberal terms. Possession January 1, 1920. The farm will be subdivided and sold to the "High Dollar" in several tracts. Photographic views mailed on request. AN ALL DAY SALE—BRASS BAND—DINNER.
